About Picket Fences

Picket fences are vertical boards (pickets) attached to two horizontal strips (stretchers). The pointed or sloped top of the pickets helps rain water run off the boards extending the life of the pickets.

The picket fence is named after "General George Picket" who marched his troops in a line during the US Civil War.

FREE Fence Ornament – D Fence

American football fans are passionate about the sport. They know a good offence is a good defense. This D Fence ornament resembles a popular sign football fans take to the game to cheer their favorite team to play hard and win. It's sure to bring a smile to the face of the football fans in your life.

- Sew in football threads

ASSEMBLY INSTRUCTIONS

- Pin the two horizontal fence boards an inch apart from each other to a piece of cardboard.
- Pin the five vertical slats on top of the horizontal boards equal distance apart making sure the outside boards align to the ends of the horizontal boards. The pointed ends of the vertical slats should all be pointed in the same direction.
- Starch the pieces. Allow to dry.
- Using one tail from each of the horizontal boards, sew the slats to the board. This is a place holder so that you can move the pickets around after removing pins.
- Remove pins.
- Weave in tails of pickets. At the top of the picket, weave the tail so it fills in the hole in the point.
