Pig Accessories

Playing "dress-up" is enjoyable for kids (of all ages). Have a little fun and crochet a few accessories for your pig.

Crochet a medal – embroider Initials in the gold medal to personalize the pig or stitch in "1st" to make the pig a prize winner.

Crochet a shirt – mix and match colors. The color can be masculine, feminine or school colors.

Instructions for the letter "A" are included in this section for fans of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks.

FREE Pig Accessories - Pinwheel

In a couple of Geico commercials, there is a pig named Maxwell who squeals "Weeeee" as he holds a pinwheel in the wind. Whether your pinwheel represents Max or not, they are just plain fun to make.

PAPER PINWHEEL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Cut a piece of decorative paper to 5 inches by 5 inches square.
2. Cut from the corners to within one inch of the center on the diagonal. (See picture)
3. Punch a hole near the edge of each right hand side of corners. (See picture)
4. Punch a hole in the center of the paper. (See picture)
5. Align all the holes to the center whole (use glue if needed).
6. Insert and set eyelet.
7. Insert brad through eyelet and into eraser of pencil. (If needed, use a paper piercing tool or the end of a compass to pierce the eraser before pushing the brad into the pencil).
